This may be tomorrow's lifeline
for millions!

If the worst should happen . . . if America should be attacked . . . if atom bombs should fall with all their fury . . . would there be enough blood available for the millions who would need it?

The answer must be yes . . . and in time it can be yes . . . if you help now through your Red Cross.

Your Red Cross has been given the responsibility for planning, operating, and coordinating a nationwide blood program for the armed forces and for civil defense.

Money, as well as blood, is needed. Won't you give, and give generously, through your Red Cross? The money you give today can mean blood whenever, wherever it's needed.

Mobilize for defense + give now!

ARTIST GUILD WILL HOLD ONE MAN SHOW OF ARMIN HANSEN

A rare treat awaits art lovers at the forthcoming one man exhibit of paintings and etchings of the beloved Peninsula artist Armin Hansen, N.A. at the galleries of the Artist Guild of America, Inc., Monte Verde and Ocean, Carmel. Never before has there been such a group of work from the brush of Mr. Hansen, whose technique and fine sensitivity of detail and depth are those of the artist who is recognized as an outstanding marine and figure painter of our time.

Art followers will not want to miss the opportunity of visiting and enjoying the extraordinarily fine work that will be showing March 7 to March 29, from 1 to 6 p.m. daily.

In the mezzanine gallery of the AGA, Inc., are a wonderful array of those famous Armin Hansen etchings, which have been acclaimed abroad and from coast to coast. Those who possess them are considered fortunate indeed.

This exhibit of Armin Hansen may well be designated "exhibit of the year," this being the first time that Mr. Hansen has exhibited on the Monterey Peninsula such a large number of his outstanding paintings and etchings in one showing.

RED CROSS DRIVE STARTS

The Carmel Red Cross annual drive for funds is under way. There can be no question but that this drive should receive the whole-hearted support of our entire community.

Tom Perry is treasurer of the Carmel chapter and general chairman of the drive. Robert Spencer is chairman of the residential area. His captains are Miss Mary Virginia Hess, Mesdames Walter Nielsen, Betty Carr, Isabelle Terhune,

A. F. Blanks, Emma Scott and Francis Forzker.

Business area chairman is Frank Sowell. Workers for Carmel Unincorporated are Mesdames James Dowd, Ted Durein, Charles McHarry, Thomas Elston, Walter Burde, Edwin Tucker, James Finley and Paul Low.

Additional chairmen are Mrs. Hampton S. Stewart Jr. for Pebble Beach; Mrs. Robert McGrath for Big Sur; Will Martin for Lower Carmel Valley, and Commander Chas. Ashley for Upper Carmel Valley.

LARGE CROWD AT PINE INN FASHION SHOW

In spite of the rain, snow and very cold weather, the Pine Inn was crowded Wednesday, during luncheon, for the first of the new series of fashion shows. These shows--to be given every Wednesday during two luncheon periods, promise to become a Carmel social function.

The clothes shown were perfect for casual living on the Peninsula. The prices on models shown were moderate and emphasis was laid on the type of outfit that makes for comfort and self-assurance. Rod Coupe was commentator.

THIS IS WHY there are PICKETS AT KIP'S LET'S EXAMINE THE FACTS!

100% of the employees do NOT WANT to join the union—The union wants a "union shop", which would require all employees to become members of the union and remain members in good standing.

The management of Kip's believes in the right of self-determination by its employees.

The management met with the union representative on several occasions and a form of contract was worked out that did not leave the parties far apart, except that it Required a "union shop".

The union was offered the opportunity to organize the employees;
The union was offered the opportunity to take part in an election to be run by the State Conciliation Board;
The union was offered the opportunity to take part in any impartial election.

The union did try to organize the employees, but refused to take part in any type of election.

However, an impartial, secret election was held in the City Hall, was presided over by the Mayor, the only other persons present being a reporter and two carpenters, members of another union. The results of this election were certified by the Mayor to be 100% of ALL employees against a union shop.

Kip's will continue to serve its customers thru employees who are free to determine for themselves what conditions of employment suit them best.

Singing in the Shower

Shower-singing is an old American custom which proves that all the good singers are not in the Met, or crooning over the air waves, and shows that Americans are a jolly people, come what may. . . Singing in the shower might also be considered as a spontaneous burst of gratitude for that inestimable gift of Nature (and water works men)—running water.

The water works men of the United States provide the best water of any systems in the world—and deliver it to consumers, just where and just when they want it, at the lowest possible cost.

CARMEL VALLEY COUNTRY CLUB OPEN TO ALL

The new Carmel Valley Country Club which will open April 1 about two miles beyond the Valley shopping center will do so on a "welcome-one-and-all" basis rather than as a private club, the management announced this week.

Reasons for the change given by "Big Bob" Robinson and "Little Bob" Mills, co-owners and managers, were building restrictions placed by the National Production Authority and the general situation created by the present national emergency.

The new plan, however, will be welcomed by many who last season enjoyed their unique brand of hospitality and "refined rowdiness" at The Carousel, formerly under their management.

Many changes will be seen by crowds which attended the Country Club's informal pre-view a month or so ago. A massive rock wall now encloses one of the most extensive paved terraces in the Peninsula area. It will be used for daytime dining and sun basking.

The glass-sided, glass-roofed dining room has been completed, as well as their highly original "Old San Francisco" Cocktail Lounge which is decorated in great pieces of antique furniture from Virginia City. Also many mementos of early San Francisco, decorated with red plush and gold fringe, will give a Barbary Coast flavor to the bar and lounge.

The backbar piece is a Victorian wonder of walnut and brown-veined marble -- a real museum piece. Panelling of the bar itself is made of doors from the old Fulton house which stood across from the San Francisco City Hall at the time of the Great Earthquake.

Landscaping now well started includes planting of dozens of trees. "Big Bob" Robinson's planned flower shows will entail a monthly change of all floral decorations. Several demonstration-lectures of his own methods of wood, grass, and flower arranging, are on the year's calendar of activities.

The two Bobs say that everyone is welcome to visit the new Carmel Valley Country Club for a look-around at any time.

"Naturally we'd like to do everything we'd planned right now," the Club's owners stated, "but we realize that 'there's a war going on'--even if an undeclared one, and lots of other people are having to postpone their dreams, too. However, as soon as we can legally go ahead, we will. Meanwhile, we promise it will be as much fun as the old Carousel--with all our beautiful new facilities for swimming, sunning, and bon-vivanting which we haven't had before."

EDUCATION EVALUATED BY WOMEN'S GROUP PANEL

"Contemporary Criticism of Education" was the subject of an interesting panel when the Monterey County Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for women in education, held its regular February meeting at the home of Miss Gertrude Rendtorff in Carmel. Speakers were Miss Grace Widemann of Gonzales, Miss Helen Purl and Mrs. Laura Tarver of Salinas, who reviewed the Hoper survey and other studies.

Findings showed that schools are not perfect, but there does appear to be wise guidance in many fields by sincere teachers. "Modern" education aims for the maximum development of each child along the line of his unique needs.

The panel emphasized the fact that it takes over $30,000 to catch and convict a felon, and brought out the point that it would be better to educate the child for a constructive job in life.

The regional meeting of Delta Kappa was announced for March 3, at the new Willow Glen Junior High School in San Jose. The state convention is set for May 5 and 6 at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. Local convention co-chairmen are to be Mrs. Marcia Frisbee de Voe of Sunset School, Carmel, and Mrs. Matilda J. Murrin of Salinas.

The next meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma is set for March 15. This is to be "guest night" at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Meeter Jordan in Carmel, at which time Anne (Mrs. W. K.) Fisher has for her topic "My Stay in a Seventeenth Century Palace in Guatemala--The House in Antigua."

NURSES' AIDES for DEFENSE

Recruitment and training of an additional 100,000 nurses' aides and reactivation of 150,000 are among the American Red Cross responsibilities for the nation's defense.

CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB VIEWS ARNOLD PICTURES

In the absence of Mrs. E. Bingham, garden chairman, President Mrs. F. E. Vaughan presided at the meeting of the garden section of the Carmel Woman's Club held February 26.

On the agenda for the Club is the spring rummage sale, April 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. "Think about this sale," said Mrs. Vaughan "and begin to save for it. Anything in the plant line will be welcome. Start slips, cuttings and seeds for the biggest plant sale we have ever had. This will be a special feature of the spring rummage sale and will be held in the patio."

Mrs. Vaughan then introduced Mr. and Mrs. Noel T. Arnold of Pebble Beach. Mr. Arnold stated that since photography was his hobby and flowers Mrs. Arnold's hobby, he had come to specialize in colored flower photography. He remarked that he had not expected to find a screen of such dimensions as the one in the Woman's Club. "When my projector saw that screen, it wanted to go home."

The pictures shown were accompanied by sound effects and comments by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold. A motion picture of Yosemite which took over ten years to complete depicted the world of bloom from spring to fall. One picture of special interest to the audience was that of the Carmel Woman's Club Flower Show of 1950. Outstanding exhibits reproduced in color were Mrs. Pattee's roses, the bridal table arranged by Mrs. Paul McKinstry, a table by Mrs. E. H. Tickle, the Hawaiian exhibit by Mr. and Mrs. William Eklund, and the unusual shadow box arrangement by Mrs. Charles L. DeVault. A decorated elephant by Mrs. Cooksley rated a slide, as did the shrine in the patio set up by Mrs. Fenton Grigsby, and figurines by Alberta Dreyer.

The Arnolds' gardens, comprising two acres in Pebble Beach under the care of Wilfred Mack, were the subject of several slides. A night-blooming cereus unfolded on the screen as it did in the Arnolds' home.

Mrs. L. C. Miller, hostess for the garden section, was assisted in serving tea by Mrs. William L. Askew and Mrs. Ella C. Harris. Miss Ruth D. Radcliff and Mrs. Dale G. Hollenbeck poured.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club, to be held March 5 at 2 p.m., will feature a program of dramatic news and reviews by Mrs. Larry Johns of New York. Mrs. Johns brings the latest theatrical news from all over the world at least one complete review of a current play and sketches of authors, actors and directors from theaters far and wide.

years cellist with the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra, during which time he was also executive secretary and a member of the board of directors of that orchestra.

An enthusiastic cellist, "Ted" has been playing in informal string trios and quartettes for friends during the intervening years. His presence in the County orchestra will add depth to the fine string section.

LINE SCHOOL TO PERMIT CIVILIANS TO ATTEND FOREIGN AFFAIRS LECTURES

For the first time in the history of the Navy's General Line School at Del Monte, local citizens will be invited to participate in the school curriculum. Captain Thomas J. Casey, Commanding Officer of the Naval School, announced this week that a limited number of Peninsula residents may make application to attend the series of lectures on international relations by leading authorities on foreign affairs. The lectures begin Friday, February 23, and will be held on alternate Thursday evenings thereafter, at 8 P.M., in the main dining room of the Naval School. The course will cover the entire field of international relations and U.S. foreign policy from 1945 to the present day, with particular emphasis on the Soviet Union's role and her activities in the international picture. They are part of the General Line Course which convened on February 12. Speakers will be furnished by the Hoover Institute and Library at Stanford University.

Unfortunately the seating capacity of the lecture hall will limit admittance to approximately 100 local civilians. These will be admitted without charge but must have an admission ticket which can be obtained by sending a letter or post-card to: Officer-in-Charge, International Relations Lecture Series, U.S. Naval School, General Line, Monterey.

A SERVICE FOR DISCRIMINATING BUYERS

FOR THOSE WHO LOVE SWEATERS--CALEDONIA CASHMERES in a variety of styles and colors are the March fashion news at the HARRIET DUNCAN DRESS SHOP. One style in 100% East Indian cashmere comes in the new spring shades--Gentian blue, Fashion rose, Daffodil yellow and Sweet Pea green. These full-fashioned sweaters are $16.95 for the short sleeved models and $19.95 for the long sleeved ones.

A second style is all hand-fashioned...in spun nylon de luxe. It must be washed--so you save on cleaning bills. Doesn't have the look of wool...Doesn't even need to be blocked. Just spread on a table, and it will dry quickly. This sweater is now available in white only, but later on may be had in a galaxy of colors. The white stays white...which means you don't need to worry about tattle-tale grey or about the garment turning yellow. The short sleeved sweater is $10.95--the cardigan, $12.95.

A 100% virgin wool sweater with the look of linen--and also the color of linen--is an astounding product of this year. This sweater doesn't stretch. With short sleeves it is $16.95, and with long sleeves, $17.95.

Heatherton from Scotland--an exclusive line that Miss Duncan has been wanting to carry for a long time, because these are the finest imported sweaters--is the fourth style which was shown me. These Heatherton sweaters are light as a feather for the gauge is very fine. They are perfect for golf or to wear with cotton dresses. If you like good clean colors that are wonderful in the sun, there are the lovely faded blue horizon, sea green and white.

I think the above information will point the way for you to the spot where the finest choice in sweaters is to be found--the HARRIET DUNCAN DRESS SHOP--on 6th and Lincoln.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE KNITTER in custom-knit clothes, imported and domestic yarns and knitting instruction has come to Carmel. ROSE BROWN, an exclusive little shop in the lobby of the Pine Inn, will have its opening on Wednesday, March 7. Rose Brown, the enthusiastic owner of this shop, has gathered a host of top California designers to contribute to her stock. Capo, a private silversmith, is using the shop as the only retail outlet for his fabulous jewelry. As he is a globe-trotter he gathers his designs from his travels and his jewelry is worn by America's most fastidious women.

Rose Hogan, another of California's most renowned designers, creates Ho-gans, custom belts and hats of prime English suedes, in various colors.

Jim Pack, of California, designs the best looking bags and belts in the country. He has some trick belts for women golfers. Pauline Denham's frosty, sheer and linen yarns, along with Laines du Pinquoin's and Fleisher's yarns, are the best and most economical to be found in the knitting world. These designers will be at the ROSE BROWN SHOP at its opening next Wednesday. Miss Brown cordially invites everyone to attend.

A POTPOURRI of fashion is what the CINDERELLA SHOP will exhibit when it gives its annual luncheon fashion show at the Pine Inn, on Wednesday, March 7. The clothes to be shown are styles that can be worn here on the Monterey Peninsula for all occasions. There will be tailored suits, woollens, casual dresses, and the evening outfits will not be fussy, long, drapery gowns, but such practical little ensembles as linen dresses that in the evening can become very decolette and sparkling, as the jacket used during the day is removed. There are any number of models for this purpose, and if Milady wants to be in the know about what is smart on the Peninsula, hasten to the Pine Inn next Wednesday for lunch, and while you enjoy a satisfying meal you will be entertained and given the know-how on fashions by the CINDERELLA SHOP...located next to the Bank of Carmel.

DELICIOUS CAPONETTE FRYERS are available again, so Mrs. Ladd of MAC'S POULTRY tells me. She says she has a special of large roasters for 36¢ a pound. Broilers, fryers and roasters are plentiful and will help with your meat bill, as well as provide a delicious variety to your meals. The poultry is locally raised and processed, that is, killed and dressed here, and this helps to keep prices down, as well as assuring you of poultry that is good and fresh. Something one should avail himself of is cut-up pieces of chicken...you can buy thighs, breasts and legs in any amount you wish. Or, if you buy a caponette fryer, and know that someone will fight over the drumsticks, you can always buy extra drumsticks to go with it. For something special in price, try the back, neck and wings either for soup or frying--only 35¢ a pound. Mrs. Ladd, whose business it is to be up on how to keep prices down is right up to the minute on the best buys in poultry, and furthermore, it is fun to go into her immaculate little store, MAC'S POULTRY, on San Carlos and Fifth, and select plump poultry for your dinner. Also...don't forget the very fresh ranch eggs there...in assorted sizes, at economical prices.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

To those who walk down Ocean Avenue, whether new or old in their acquaintance with Carmel, the open door of The Cinderella Shop invites investigation. As soon as one enters, the friendly greeting of its owner, Mrs. Helen Lightner Dean, puts the newcomer at ease and makes the old feel at home. Whether one is simply "looking"—as what woman isn't who peers over its Dutch door at the shop's good-looking clothes—or whether one has a problem concerning what must be had for that special affair in the offing, she will find the contact fruitful. Even if a purchase is not made, the "Cinderella Club," so dubbed by a retired colonel's wife who is a frequent visitor, offers an opportunity for a cigarette, a chat, or a rest.

The shop has been in its present location since 1936 when it was purchased by Mrs. Dean, who came here from Sacramento looking for a place in which her husband might recover his health. It was the first dress shop on Ocean Avenue, having originally opened on the other side of the street. Burned out of its first quarters, it was moved by its owner, Miss Janet Prentiss, across the street to its present location where since then the Cinderella Coach up over its door has become a familiar landmark.

"The shop is my hobby, for it's fun to make a business of knowing what people like, what colors are becoming to them, and what styles best suit their personalities. I seldom leave the shop except for my twice-yearly buying treks to New York and Los Angeles. Although our trend was always toward sport clothes, the emphasis of the army and navy wives upon more fussy things has brought in a formal note to add to the casual."

Mrs. Dean's particular community interest is The Community Center of Monterey of which she is an associate member. "It's doing a wonderful job at providing proper care and schooling for the children of working mothers, and I'm all for it." Mrs. Dean is also a member of the Carmel Art Association. She lives with her sister in an attractive early California "farmhouse" just inside the 17-Mile Drive. "Its marvellous view is what sold it to us, for we can see a whole sweep of ocean as far as Pt. Lobos."

ALL-COLOR TRAVEL
FILM TO FEATURE
SCANDINAVIA

An all-color travelogue of "SCANDINAVIA" will be given by Curtis F. Nagel, Academy Award winner, when he appears in person at the Sunset School, Carmel, next Sunday evening at 8:30.

One of America's foremost photographers and producers, Nagel has roamed the world for 15 years making his magnificent "Color-logues."

Alice Seckels of Carmel, in cooperation with the San Francisco Town Hall, is presenting Nagel as the first of several travelogues to follow this spring. He has proved to be an outstanding platform speaker whose all-color pictures have attracted sell-out houses wherever he is known. They are made and narrated in the same professional Hollywood manner as his theatrical films. He has appeared in hundreds of cities throughout the world.

This travelogue will be given once only. Tickets are on sale at the Browse-Around Music Shop in Carmel, Abinante's in Monterey and at the door Sunday evening after 7 P.M.

is a Swedish version of Dostoevski's famous novel "Crime and Punishment." According to the New Republic, this one "is a creditable film that pitches the story on a more rational level than the French version."

The tale is of a young intellectual who murders a woman he considers to be a useless person, thinking that thereby he will find his own resurrection. The drama of the story revolves around his final discovery that it is bad to murder per se.

Tickets may be obtained at the Box Office, or by calling Mrs. George Fuhrman, 5-4305, who is chairman of the League's Finance Drive. The price is $1.00.

"BURIED ALIVE"
IS NOW
"HOLY MATRIMONY"

Gracie Fields and Monty Wooley cavort with distinction in "Holy Matrimony," the film version of Arnold Bennett's "Buried Alive" which is playing at the Hill Theater through Saturday night.

The story, of course, is about the great painter who has his valet buried in Westminster Abbey and who then, taking on the valet's identity, begins to enjoy living. Somehow, this thoroughly witty and delightful film got produced in the middle of the war and it carries with it something of the quality of very great comedy, which always rides just next to tragedy.

The Swedish filming of Dostoevski's "Crime and Punishment" follows at the Hill on Sunday. (See above)

This is the one time in the year when the USO is turned over, for a night of fun, to citizens of the Monterey Peninsula. Last year's carnival was so successful that the board of management decided to make it an annual affair. Mrs. Gladys Johnston is chairman of the Carmel committee.

The carnival is given for the purpose of raising what is known as a hospitality fund, with which the USO gives entertainment for the service men on the Peninsula. More than 14,000 boys go to the USO every month for dances, games, rides through the countryside and other entertainment provided by this organization.

PEBBLE BEACH NOTES...

Dici Douglas, daughter of Mrs. Thomas A. McGlynn, Jr., of Pebble Beach, became the bride of Arthur Harber, of Carmel, at rites performed by the Rev. K. Fillmore Gray at the Church of the Wayfarer, Sunday (February 25) at 3 o'clock.

The Church was decorated with arrangements of white stock and tall tapers, and it was the first time the beautifully hand-carved kneeling bench had been used.

Mrs. James Griffin was at the organ and Mr. Griffin was the soloist before the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, Thomas A. McGlynn, Jr., chose a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a peter pan collar edged in seed pearls, a tight-fitting bodice buttoned to the waist, and a full skirt over hoops which ended in a long train. Her finger-tip length veil was edged in chantilly lace and a coronet of the same lace was in her hair. She carried a white prayer book with an arrangement of white bouvardia and lilies of the valley.

Georgann Bell, the bride's only attendant, wore an off-the-shoulder model of pink satin made with a full skirt over hoops. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of deep pink carnations.

Victor Harber was best man for his brother, and Ted Schoenhair and Tom Hanley seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore a yellow spring suit with which she wore black and violet accessories and a pinned-on corsage of violets. Mrs. Floyd E. Harber, the groom's mother, chose a navy blue ensemble and her flowers were pink camellias.

Following the church service a reception was held at the Carmel Youth Center--the first wedding reception to be held in the attractive Center--where the rooms were decorated with calla lilies and daffodils. The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth, was decorated with bouvardia and tapers around the huge cake.

The bride wore a navy blue tailored suit with pink accessories when she left for a honeymoon in Northern California. Following a week's honeymoon the couple will make their home in Carmel.

Stuyvesant Fish spent the week end at his Palo Corona Ranch home and hosted a dinner party Friday for a group of friends.

Gorham Knowles spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Wynn Meredith in Pebble Beach, and attended the Fish dinner, as did David Park, Mr. Fish's house guest for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Macon Smith of Sausalito occupied "Borderlinks" at Pebble Beach last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Perry Osborn of New York have just terminated a brief visit at the Cypress Point Club, Pebble Beach.

PEBBLE BEACH NOTES...

Mrs. Ruthven E. Libby of Warrenton, Virginia, whose husband, Rear Admiral Libby, commander of the Third Cruiser Division, left for sea duty this week, is spending a fortnight at the Pebble Beach home of Mrs. Elmer E. Meyers. Mrs. Libby flew out from the East to see her husband off and will return to "The Dell," her Virginia farm as soon as weather permits.

Mrs. Meyers has just returned from a sojourn in Los Angeles with her aunt, Mrs. Lewis Allen Weiss, who has since traveled to Washington, D.C., to join Mr. Weiss, whose business interests have taken him to the nation's capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osborne opened their Carmel Valley ranch home for a barbecue Sunday. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nevill M. J. Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Leonard, Captain and Mrs. William M. Donnelly, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wolter, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Cordrey, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Henderson III, Stuyvesant Fish, Countess Genevieve de Sugny, Franta Lassen, Gorham Knowles, David Park, Miss Janet Folsom, and Mr. and Mrs. C. IT ALWAYS HAS
SOMETHING TO DO WITH A NAME

It may be changing a name from "Miss" to "Mrs.," the arrival of baby Joan, the purchase of a brand new car or television.

Whatever the event, a name plays an important role.

This is particularly true when you make a purchase. Whether it's a routine item or that certain "something" you've always wanted, it's important to have your purchase identified by a maker's brand name... a recognized symbol of merit.

Pride of possession and downright good economy go hand-in-hand when you select a famous advertised brand. Responsible manufacturers know that their success depends on giving you outstanding value for your hard-earned money. They cannot afford to take chances with your satisfaction.

MONTEREY PENINSULA merchants are well-stocked with the foremost brands of all types of merchandise... the finest products of American industry... products that have earned their reputations.

To be sure—and you want to be sure when you buy—always look for the NAME of the maker. A maker's name that has won public confidence by standing for consistent quality, style and value... a brand name that has won acceptance all over America, is your guarantee of reaching a sound buying decision.

NAVY ACCEPTING RESERVE OFFICER APPLICATIONS

The Navy today began accepting applications from enlisted male and female personnel in the Volunteer and Organized Reserve for its 1951 Summer Reserve Officer Candidate Program.

Established to provide a continuing flow of reserve officer material, the program is restricted to college students. It is designed primarily to procure officers who may qualify eventually for commissions in the general line category, including aviation and specialists. Medical, dental and chaplain corps officers are being procured from other programs.

Training of male reserve officer candidates will be at the U.S.

Naval Training Station, Newport, Rhode Island, and the U.S. Naval Station, San Diego, California.

A school has been established at the U.S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois, for female officer candidates.

Courses will be six weeks long and male candidates normally will be ordered to the training center nearest their home or college address. Applicants must be able to complete the required two summer periods not later than the summer subsequent to graduation.

To qualify for the reserve officer candidate program, both male and female applicants must be enrolled in accredited college or university and in good scholastic standing. Male applicants must be at least 17 years of age and female applicants at least 18. Applicants over 27 will not be accepted. Students pursuing theological, medical or dental courses, or courses leading to a commission in the Medical Service Corps are not eligible for this program.

Applicants must also be natural born citizens of the United States, or have been naturalized for a period of ten years, and be physically qualified in all respects.

Successful completion of the Reserve Officer Candidate program may lead to an appointment to a commissioned grade in the Naval Reserve. For additional information contact the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Room 358, Federal Office Building, San Francisco.

NEW DEPOSITOR OR GUARD? Saturday mornings in Carmel are a busy time for the Bank of Carmel and last Saturday was no exception. Along about 11 o'clock one of "man's best friends" took possession of the south door, causing some good-humored congestion at the other door. No one attempted to step by or over our friend as he basked in the California sunlight. (This last sentence is for the benefit of our Eastern readers...who perhaps don't know about the rain and snow the first part of this week.) Before departing for other haunts, our friend above walked inside the bank, but as the windows were all busy, strolled out again. POLAROID One-Minute Photograph.
